MEMORANDUM FOR: Maurice Ernst
Director, Economic Research

FROM: Robert L. Price RLP

SUBJECT: CIEP Shifts to Flanigan Reign

Mr. Flanigan assumed de facto control of CIEP on February 13, 1972. His staff of 6 will be integrated with a paired down CIEP staff of 9 from the former 13 staff members. My preliminary views on staff responsibilities are as follows:

I. Old CIEP Staff

1. Deane R. Hinton - Assistant Director of CIEP (middle and long term problems, adviser to Mr. Eberle on OECD and EC trade matters)
2. Robert L. Price - (East-West Trade, Canada, Japan, raw materials policy, S&T activities)
3. Robert J. Morris - (OECD, EC, GATT, and U.S. trade legislation)
4. Lawrence Rosen - (LDCs, generalized preferences)
5. William J. Mazzocco - (Contact with domestic business and labor community)

6. Gus W. Weiss, Jr. - (multinational corporations, general trade and investment matters)
7. Lawrence J. Brady - (Congressional activity Hartke-Burke, Dent, and Magnuson bills, etc.)
8. Dwight Keating - (?, worked for Dick Allen on short term economic issues such as Tariff Commission issues, quotas, etc.)
9. Allen J. Lenz - (Administration and personnel chief of executive secretariat)

II. New CIEP Members from Flanigan Staff

10. Jonathan Rose - (assistant to Flanigan)
11. James Loken - (short term problems - tariff and quota issues, domestic energy and oil issues)
12. George Crawford - (legal and legislative domestic problems)
13. Richard Erb - (monetary problems)
14. Robert McDermott - (?)
15. Peggy Harlow - (?)

A scenario of CIEP activities involving trade negotiations and legislative activities during 1972 will include:

- A. EC - Spain/Israel consultations
- B. Monetary reform negotiations
- C. Trade dispute with Canada
- D. Preparations in GATT for 1973 negotiations
